Milton Mass. First Congregational Church

The original book from which this is reproduced is bound in leather, decorated with doves arranged vertically, and bears for a title simply the words MILTON CHURCH RECORDS with pearls and wreaths at intervals. The book measures over all 5 7/8 inches by 4 1/4 inches, the pages being 5 1/2 inches by 3 7/8 inches; and is rather less than an inch thick.

The first leaf, with quotation from Luke, was apparently pasted in after the book was made up. Then follow six leaves without any marks excepting such as time has made on them. Next comes a page inscribed "Fragments of ch. Records," which gives an explanation of the origin of the book, in a later hand than that of the book itself.

The leaf following begins- "The Covenant Entered into By y Brethren of Milton....." and there are one hundred twenty-six (126) consecutive pages as herein reproduced. The remainder of the book is of a different quality of paper not so much stained by time. On this newer part first comes a leaf unmarked, then three (3) pages of Records of the Church, and the rest of the book, composed of some thirty-five leaves, is blank.

Luke. 24. 45, 46, 47. Then opened he their understanding, & they tho. understand of scriptures - And said unto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behooved ^{us} to suffer, & to rise from the dead on the 3^d day - - And of repentance, & remission of sins tho. he preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

It was proposed from this passage of last Lords Day

I To shew of things that happened to ^{us} that had been foretold by of prophets.

II. That of Death & R. & of ^{us} were necessary events.

III It was no less necessary of repentance & he preached of - What now remains is to explain of nature, of effects of repentance - its connection with remission of sins, - & what is implied in preaching them to of world -

Fragments of Ch. Records.

Handed to me [loose] by Edward H. Robbins, Esq. on September 3^d 1798. which he said were all that could be found, among his late Rev.
Father's papers. I afterwards went, with my friend, Nathaniel J. Robbins, and looked over a trunk of his papers, but obtained no additions to this collection. Joseph McKean

The Covenant Entred into By y^e Brethren of Milton w^h y^e Chh was Gathered. April 24. 1678. Dorchester 1 We whose names are subscribed, being called of god to joine our selves together in this communion, from our hearts acknowledging our owne unworthynesse, of such a priviledge, or of y^e least of gods mercies, & likewise acknowledging our owne disability, to keep Covenant, with god, or to performe any spirituall duty, w^h wee ca beth us unto, unless, y^e Lord Jesus doe enable, there unto, by his sp^{ir} dwelling in us. Doe, In y^e name of Christ Jesus our Lord, & in trust & confidence of his free grace assisting us: Freely Covenant, & bind our selves, solemnly, in y^e presence of god himf. his holy Angells, & all his servants here present, y^t wee will by his grace assisting, Endeavour constantly to walk together as a right ordered, Congregation of Christ, according to all y^e holy rules, of a Church body: rightly Established, soe farre as wee doe already know it to be our duty: Or shall further understand it out of gods holy word: Promising first & above all, to give up our selves & our offspring unto y^e Lord, god father son & Holy Ghost, y^e only true & living god, & to cleave unto him as our chiefe & only good, and unto our Lord Jesus Christ as our only Saviour, our Prophet Priest & King, our spirituall head & Husband; & for y^e furthering of us to keep y^e bl sed Communion with god & his son Jesus Christ, & to grow up ma nully here in, wee doe likewise promise, by his grace assisting us to Endeavour y^e Establishing, amongst our selves of all his Ordinances, w^h he hath appointed for his Chh here on Earth, & to Observe all & Every of y^m, in such sort, as shall bee most agreeable unto his will; Opposeing, unto y^e utmost of our Chh power y^e Contrary. And lastly wee doe hereby Covenant & pro mise, to further unto y^e utmost of our power, y^e best spirituall goods, of such other, & of all & Every One, y^t may become me bers of y^e Congregation, by mutuall Instruction, reprehension Exhortation, Consolation, & spirituall watchfullnesse, over one another, for good; & to be subject in & for y^e Lord, to all y^e Adm nistrations & Censures, of y^e Chh, soe far as y^e same shall be guided according to y^e Rules of gods most holy word in a way of order peace & union; with all promising to walk orderly in a way of fellowshipe, & Communion with all y^e Chhs of Christ amongst us ac cording to Rule. y^t y^e Lord may be one & his name gl^{ori} in all y^e Chhs.

This Covenant

This Covenant wee doe by folemne act of Chh Confidera Enter into, with full purpose of heart (as if God shall us) to keep it forever, & where wee shall faile, it to wa upon our Lord Iesus, for healing & pardon for his Names

Dearlly Beloved In our Lord Jesus Christ

Y^e serious and solemn consideration of y^e all-wise disposing and leading hand of Divine providence both of y^e selves and of me, in respect of your first invitation of me unto y^e work of y^e ministry. In order unto settlement with you and taking office amongst y^e, by which and y^e advise of y^e most judicious and discerning I was perswaded so far to comply with all as to remove my self and my family to this place y^e so I might y^e more clearly discern and faith fully follow Divine guidance and direction in my future settlement amongst you or remove from y^e, according as God should unite y^e parts of y^e ch^h and congregation unto me and mine and ours unto y^e or otherwise dispose and God having in his infinite goodness given me much experience of your undeserved love, kindness and affection of y^e ch^h and congregation unto mee and mine not only in your readiness to doe for as occasion hath presented; but in your obliging gratitude promised and in your unanimous, frequent and affectionate calls unto settlement with y^e and office engagement amongst y^e which unmerited and unexpected tho much desired unanimous affection hath, doth, and (continuing) I hope will much engage and endear mine to your selves. Y^e Consideration of all these things and many more which I might but shall not mention calling a loud upon me for more y^e ordinary preponderation due consultation fervent supplication and speedy resolution with final determination I have diligently weighed and preponderated seriously consulted with others earnestly and extraordinary supplication suplicated both publicly, privately and secretly done guidance and conduct, and do therefore resolve and determine (with submission to divine sovereignty and in intire dependance upon divine sufficiency for assistance and acceptance) Notwithstanding my deep unworthyness of my ~~deep~~ great unsittiness for, my too much back-ness unto and my great discouragement in word of the ministry not only in respect of y^e great duty and dificulty of y^e work in it self considered, but Especiall in y^e place in respect of those lamentable animosities and divisions which have been in y^e place ^{wh} hath occasioned your unsettlement untill now; in y^e Lord for his own name sake pardon and prevent for y^e future. I say Notwithstanding if yet I resolve to determine to give my self up unto y^e work of y^e ~~ministry~~ Lord in y^e ministry among your selves (believing God calls me there unto) On y^e conditions 1. So long you continue one amongst yourselves as for me all due means being used or tendered for healing In case of difference.

2. So long as I may enjoy y^e liberty of my judgment according to scripture rule.
3. So long as you shall subject your selves and yours to y^e Ordinances and officers of y^e ch^rch.
4. So long as I may follow my study without traction; and provide for my self and family according to y^e rules of Gods word So long as you shall give me scripture encouragements &c I shall endeavour to give my selfe up unto y^e work of y^e Lord unto w^h God and your selves are calling of me begging your prayers for me that I may come unto you in y^e fullness of y^e blessings of y^e Gospell of peace and of all y^e ministeriall assisting grace may be from time to time granted to me whereby I may be helped thro' my whole ministeriall unto Gods glory to y^e conversion, edification and Everall salvation of your soules and unto my own peace comfort and tranquillity and y^e best good of my family so the Lord grant for his own name sake suplying all our needs according to y^e riches of his glory by Christ, unto whome be honour and glory in y^e ch^h forever more Amen

To y^e Reverend M^r Peter Thacher, Pastor of y^e ch^h at Milton and to y^e holy art of Christ walking in communion with him. The acknowledgement of Mary Shackett (formerly Gane) now dwelling at Taunton, Is as followeth.

Whereas I am informed that my fall into that dangerous sin of fornication hath come unto y^e knottedge which cannot but be a great trouble of as well as offence to y^e sious mind; I do heartily thank you for y^e great care of and love to me which you have manifested in sending to me to stir me up unto my duty of making confession of my great evill. I was very gladd wth notice given me from your selves what your expectations were from me. I have been in great trouble of spirit since y^e my fall and I hope God hath not left me wholly to be un sensible of y^e greatness of y^e Evill of that sin how much I have thereby dishonoured God and brought guilt upon my self and how greatly I have been and am exposed thereby exposed to y^e wrath of God: and that herein I have acted contrary to y^e light and knottedge which by good education I had received. I have often thought of that chapt. 2 of Rom. 1. 20 and those following, where it said God gave men up to fornication &c. because they liked not to retain God in their ~~words~~ knottedge and because they are disobedient and full of malice and envy &c.
It made me think y^e God left me to this sin because of my disobedience to Parents and other sins I have lived in. I desire to lay my self at y^e foot of Jesus Christ as y^e vildest of sinners, having no where else to goe for cleansing and pardon: and beg your prayers unto God for me that I may obtain y^e pardon of y^e and all my sins through y^e blood of x^t and y^e he would give me true repentance and creat in me a new hart and a right spirit and enable me to follow hard after him in y^e way of his appointment that I may obtain his favour and peace with him and grace to serve him in newness of life 10 22 17

Your afflicted and sorrowfull handmaid

Renew my baptis^mall Covenant at this Town where I dwell in order to y^e baptising of my children I desire if you would be pleased to send to y^e ch^h at Taunton a dismission of me heither with notice of your satisfaction from me unless you see cause rather to Return this my acknowledgement that it may be openly read where y^e sin was committed

This confession was read to y^e ch^h of Milton before y^e Congregation & I informed y^e ch^h y^t y^e were two persons credible & pious y^t told mee y^t thee carried well & m^r Sam. Danforth (one of y^e) told me y^t thee thought thee was ready to reconcile her to y^e ch^h but wanted to be stirred up unto her duty: & y^e other was Mother (Vane) who told mee thee had with many tears lamented her fall, & seemed very penitent.

I told y^e ch^h y^t I thought these evidences, with her tender to own y^e confession in Taunton & y^e to come under y^e watch & discipline of y^e ch^h did Counter vaile her absence from us.

Soe y^e y^e ch^h voted satisfaction with y^e condition y^t Mary Hackt owne y^e confession before y^e ch^h & Congregation at Taunton & y^e acceptation of her into the relation with m^r shall be her dismission from us to y^e.

This was voted in y^e ch^h of Milton in y^e affirmative March. 31. 1695. & Susanna Horton

March. 29. 1702. Solomon & Susanna Horton confessed in y^e face of y^e ch^h & congregation y^e sin of fornication & y^e ch^h forgave y^e voted satisfaction.

May. 9. 1703. Hannah (Randler) (alia Hannah Collins) confessed in y^e face of the ch^h & Congregation her sin of fornication & y^e ch^h voted satisfaction.

Die predicto sworn Coram Eundem Vera Coria / John Clark Just. Pa.

These Testimonys being read y^e women before mentioned were Examined who came quickly after y^e Child was borne & diverse questions were propounded to m^r Roger Sumner & m^r Blare Especially whether there was any woman delivered in Eilley of Thore-house y^e night beside m^r Sumner they affirmed there was not. when y^e whole was heard I inquired of Each of those Gentle-men before mentioned whether they were satisfied that m^r Sarah Sumner was then delivered They answered in y^e Affirmative.
